A whole medicine chest in your pocket, with one box of Ayer's Pills. As they operate directly on the stomach and bowels, they indirectly affect every other organ of the body. When the stomach is out of order, the head is affected, digestion fails, the blood becomes impovershed, and you fall an easy victim to any prevalent disease. Miss M. E. Boyle, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., puts the whole truth in a nutshell, when she says: "I use no other medicine than Ayer's Pills. They are all that any one needs, and just splendid to save money in doctors' bills." Here is an instance of

Some three years ago, by the merest secident, I was forced, so to speak, to prescribe Ayer's Cathartic Pills for several sick men among a party of engineers in the Sierra Nevada mountains, my medicine chest having been lost in crossing a mountain torrent. I was surprised and delighted at the action of the Pills, so much so, indeed, that I was led to a further trial of them, as well as of your Cherry Pectoral and Sarsaparifia. I have nothing but praise to offer in their favor." John W. Brown, M. D. of Oceans.

W. Va., writes: "I prescribe Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them excellent. I urge their general use in families." T. E. Hastings, M. HOLIDAYS IN JAPAN.

FIVE NATIONAL FESTIVAL DAYS, IN-CLUDING NEW YEAR'S.

"Festival of the Dolls"-Family Barquet-1 "Feast of the Banners" for the Boys-Feasts of the "Lanterns" and "Cbrysanthemums."

The Japanese have many festive days. nd, unlike most heathen nations, are excedingly devoted to the children, sparing either time, labor nor expense for amusement. Even their system of education is made a source of pleasure, and corporal ponishment is a thing unknown in the family. Masquerades, domestic comedies, pichics and many feast days are cuncted and observed for the benefit of the ittle folks but I have observed that it is shrewd method of enjoyment for the elders also. There are five national festival days, in luding New Year's, which, under the old laws, was not begun with ours, but on the 9th day of February. The second is called the "Festival of the Dolls " and is a great day for the little girls, during which the various specimens of dollhood are conducted into the state chamber of the house, which is beautifully decorated with blooming peach boughs and evergreens. These favorite automatons are made to personify grand personages, from the ancient mikado and his court to the various families of the princes. For days before this greatest of great days to the daughters of the house, the shops are gay with splendidly dressed images; but after the festival they disappear and are seen no more till another year re spectable family has a number of doils of various sizes, ranging from four inches to a foot and a half in height. When a daughter is born to the household, a pair of dolls is purchased, with which she play until she becomes a grown up girl. she marries these are taken to her hus band's home, and in turn given to her children. In this way a great number is accumulated, if many daughters are born into the family.

A FAMILY BANQUET.

Then comes a family banquet, and after ward the girls make offerings of saki grice beer) and rice cakes to the effigies of the emperor and empress, and spend the day minicking the entire round of Jaunuese minicking the entire round of Japanese Hie, as child, maiden, wife, mother and grandmother. Other toys, representing the table service, utensits of the kitchen, bulet sets and traveling apparatus, many of these very elaborate and costly, are in use on this day. This festival is celebrated on the 3d of May.

On the 5th of July occurs a correponding feast for the boys. Previous to this the shops are again gay with toys suited for the "Feast of the Banners." These consist of all the regalia and equipments of a daimio's (prince's) procession the contents of an arsenal—flags, streamers banners, effigies of heroes, warriors, soldiers on foot, horsemen, genii of strength, valor, etc. Such toys are bought for every son born into the family, hence the display is often very imposing and brilliant. The streets are gayly decorated and planted with bamboo staffs, which are asmented and trimmed with every de tive of oddity. Gay banners are placed at all conspicuous points, biszoned with national designs, heroic sentences and family titles. Troops of boys in parti colored clothes, wearing miniature swords and sabers and each carrying a flag. throng the streets, while parents, priests and police look on in admiration.

A LARGE PAPER FISH. Outside of the door of each home bamboo pole is erected, and hung by a string to the top of the pole is a large pa-per fish, representing a carp, which the Japanese consider the type of swiftness and strength. The paper, being hollow, is easily filled by the breeze, and the huge body flap- its tail and fins in a most natu-

On the 11th of September is held the "Feast of the Lanterns," which is observed in solemn pomp by processions to and from the tombs at night, and always impresses the looker on as a most tender tribute to the dead. Then follows the Flower Day, or "Feast of the Chrysan-themums," occurring on the 9th of November, when flowers are displayed in great profusion and given away to every one as tokens of good will.

Thousand of testimonials like the following prove beyond question that Athlophoros is the only reliable remedy, and that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Mr. Josiah White, of New Paris, Ohio, said to our correspondent in reference to his being cured of rheumatism by the use of Athlophoros: It acted like a charm with me and I feel that I owe my present good health to the one bottle of Athlophoros I used. It was about two years ago I had the rheumatism I could scarcely get around and when I did manage to do so it was with great pain. I spent over thirty dollars during this attack with doctors not counting what I spent for liniments and other medicines. but none of them did me a particle of good At last I heard of Athlophoros; it was on Wednesday I commenced using it and continued taking regularly until I finished the bottle. On Friday I went out free from rheumatism. My legs were as good as ever, and from that day to this, now nearly two rears since, I have not had a twinge of many different sufferers and have been well paid for my trouble by seeing them benefited as I was
